BFV specializes in assisting business organizations of all sizes and entrepreneurs achieve their business goals. From start-up to succession, we assist clients in all phases of corporate life cycles. Our team of attorneys has diverse backgrounds in complex business transactions, dispute resolution and litigation, labor and employment matters, real estate transactions and disputes, insurance, and mergers and acquisitions.

Our valued business clients span such fields as:

- * Technology
- * Banking and financial services
- * Manufacturing
- * Health care
- * Real estate
- * Import/export
- * Restaurants
- * Hotels

No matter the field, our clients recognize that BFV goes to considerable lengths to understand the intricacies of their businesses as well as their individual philosophies and aspirations. As such, we're often viewed as our clients' "outside-in-house" legal counsel. We invest the time needed to develop strong partnerships with our clients, enabling us to derive effective legal solutions, drive down their exposure and risk and resolve their deals and disputes quickly and successfully. As with any service we know that legal work needs to be measured by a client's return on investment.

The firm's credo is to fulfill each client's need for attentive and highly responsive, cost-effective legal services. As a result, we take immense pride in our continuing, trust-based relationships with our clients.

Charles H. Van Horn

Chuck Van Horn is a shareholder at Berman Fink Van Horn where his practice involves business and commercial litigation with an emphasis in litigation arising out of real estate transactions.

Chuck represents financial institutions, mortgage companies, loan default services, title companies, attorneys, real estate brokers, appraisers and builders and developers in all types of disputes, including loan enforcement, data breach and cyber-related issues, foreclosure claims and related litigation, title litigation, contract disputes, business torts, unfair competition claims, malpractice allegations and partnership, shareholder and other internal corporate disputes, particularly those arising out of real estate enterprises.

Chuck handles a significant number of cases involving fraudulent transfer claims and has tried such claims to jury verdict.
